THE RACE TRACK WAR.—On Wednesday last, as traced in the GAZETTE of yesterday, Judge Barton at Fredericksburg, upon the petition of B. B. Smith, of this city, issued an injunction enjoining and restraining George P. Jones, Edwin M. Jones and others from entering upon the premises of B. B. Smith at Jackson City or in any way interfering with or molesting him in the quiet and peaceful use and enjoyment of said property.

This injunction was duly executed on Edwin M. Jones, who paid no attention to the same but continued to trespass on the property, whereupon Mr. John H. Greene, counsel for Mr. Smith, went to Warrenton last night and obtained from Judge Keith a rule against Edwin M. Jones, returnable at Warrenton on Tuesday April 17th, to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt in disobeying said injunction. This order was placed in the hands of the sheriff of Alexandria county this morning and it is understood that a similar application will be made to have all agents and employees of Jones brought before Judge Keith, to answer for contempt.

Later in the day Sheriff Veitch served the notice on Jones who came to this city and held a conference with his friends in reference to what course he should pursue.

THE JANE MOSELY.—When the steamer Jane Mosely returns to Washington in a few weeks she will be one of the finest excursion steamers on the Potomac. She is now at Woodall & Co.'s shipyard, Baltimore, undergoing extensive changes and repairs. Her hurricane deck is being re-canvassed and fitted with new seats and rails. The staterooms on this deck about the wheel house are to be brightened by skylights running fore and aft. A double stairway from the saloon to the hurricane deck, a thorough change on the saloon deck and new rail and wire netting on the forward open space are also among the changes in the vessel. The main deck will be opened from the stern to fifteen feet forward of the boiler bulkhead, and a stairway will lead thence up to the saloon through a glass bulkhead. The entire main deck will be sheathed with Georgia yellow pine and varnished. Before leaving Baltimore the Mosely will have been painted all over in white and gold. Charles Reeder & Sons have rebuilt her boilers, including new top shells and furnaces, and have overhauled her engines. The Mosely is owned by W. W. Evans, of Washington. She is to run between Washington, this city and Colonial Beach, on the Potomac, under the Colonial Beach Steamboat Co.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS.—Oliver Leard, the mulatto boy who made the assault on James Ball, also colored, in the western section of the city a few nights ago, was brought before Mayor Strauss this morning and fined $20 under the corporation statute. There was seemingly an attempt made to smooth the affair over, Ball in his statement saying he couldn't say who struck him and the witnesses endeavoring to impress the court with the notion that Leard struck Ball with his fist and that the latter in falling struck the back of his head against the cobble stones. Dr. Purvis testified that the wound was inflicted with some blunt instrument, and Officer Griffin, who examined the spot where Ball fell, stated that the cobble stones at that place were of the ordinary kind used in street paving and could not have produced the wound, which was jagged in shape. Leard in his version of the affair said Ball had been guilty of ungentlemanly conduct while some colored women were passing, and that he had expostulated with him, after which the difficulty ensued, which ended in Leard striking Ball with his fist. Leard is of small build and, of course, could not have struck his antagonist with his fist with sufficient force to have fractured his skull.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Custer, colored, arrested by Officer Hayes charged with disorderly conduct was fined $5.

Nettie Harris, colored, charged with the same offense, was fined $2.50.

Robert Burke, colored, arrested by Officer Griffin for disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Oliver Leard, colored, charged with assaulting James Ball, also colored, was fined $20.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. One prisoner and twelve lockers were at the station house.
